ADMINISTRATION

Class of 2022,

We have encountered significant challenges globally during your time at Marshfield High School. Collectively, we have asked you to adjust your learning practices, your social practices, your technology habits, and your health safety practices. In each of these encounters or habits you have rolled up sleeves, adjusted upon request, looked out for yourselves, your family and our community and made it work. Thank you.

These challenges have also provided all of us the opportunity to reflect on what truly is important. We have had the chance to again realize the importance of family, of relationships, of being able to spend quality time together and our overall need for connection. From our time in isolation, to hybrid to our return to the "new normal" we have begun to realize the importance of our connection to family, friends and community. Value those connections. Invest and grow your relationships. Build a community based on healthy care and concern for one another.

Together has been our theme. Class of 2022, every time we opened the doors this year you clamored to be Together. Take that commitment and energy to our world and make it a place that we can all celebrate and clamor to be Together.

Take care,

Mr. K

Principal Keuther

Assistant Principal Casey

Assistant Principal Centorino

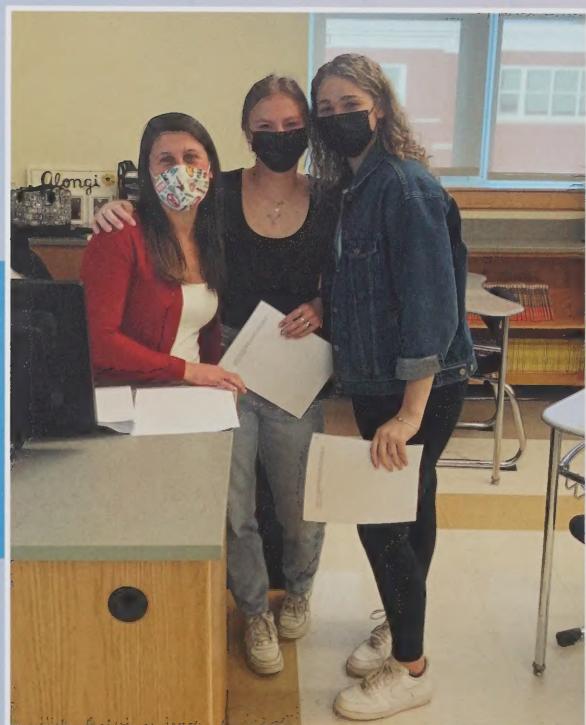

DEDICATION

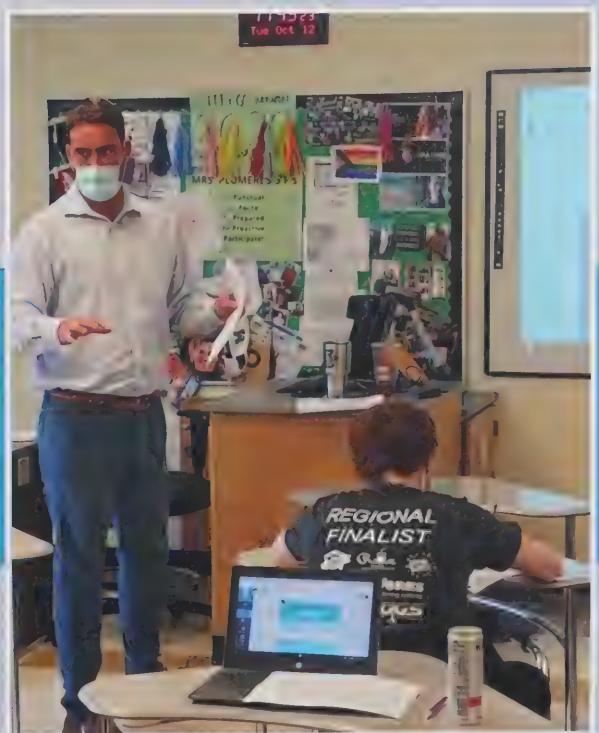

MS. ALONGI

Ms. Alongi is an excellent teacher who puts everything to the point and has helped me improve my reading and writing skills tremendously. She is hard, but caring, and understands her students needs and always puts them first. She makes class fun and engaging.

Mr. Torrosian is always up beat and makes connection with everyone.

MR. TORROSIAN

CLASS ADVISOR

MRS. WORDEN

Posey Jones

To the Class of 2022

When I took on the job of class advisor, I never realized the magnitude of the work involved, but also the fantastic benefit of getting to know so many wonderful students from this special class. From our cupcake fundraisers, to our 3 on 3 tournament, to prom, our students have come together, when we needed to raise money and enjoyed our activities as a class, even in the most difficult and challenging times ever. We got through it! This taught us all a lesson in getting through adversity and how to deal with it. There may be detours in your path in life, but I have confidence that you will be able to rise to the challenges and figure your own way out.

I have enjoyed watching you all grow and mature into great individuals. Many of you I had at Eames Way (in kindergarten), and then saw the changes when you arrived in high school. Many of you I knew from Martinson on a personal level as you were friends with my senior.

Go forward carving your own path in the next chapter of your life.

Anne Leahy

Heather Degust

Some things I have learned to live by:

Be kind-you never know what someone else is going through.

You will be surprised by how important simple kindness is.

Be Yourself-you are unique!

Take chances!

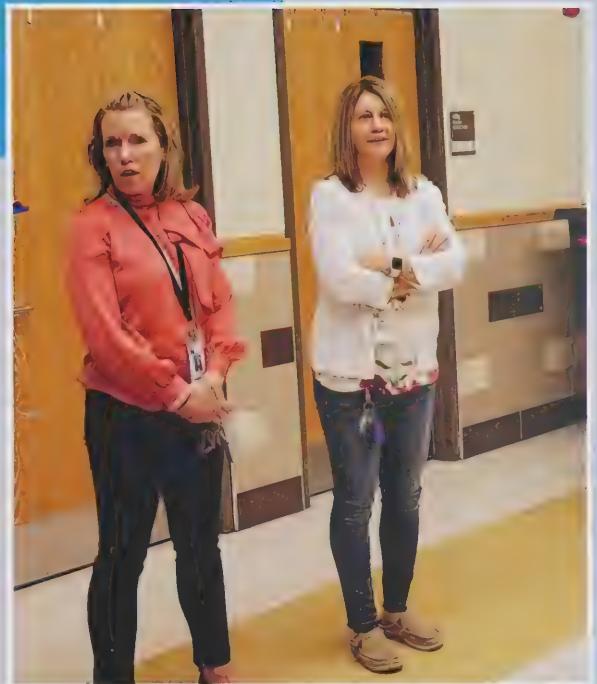

Have confidence in yourself!

Most of all enjoy the little things along the way.

Marshfield High School is behind you in your memories. What stands before you is all of your dreams. As it has been said, "Life is not a race but indeed a journey." Enjoy the journey and the lessons that you learn and the people you meet along the way.

The world is waiting for you! Make the most of it.

Mrs. Worden

A collage featuring a woman's face on the left, composed of various colorful, textured materials like fabric and paper. On the right, a large, weathered wooden building with multiple windows and doors, some of which have glass panes showing a landscape. The overall aesthetic is rustic and artistic.

Zack

Since you were a baby, this has been my song for you. Never more true than it is now!

My wish for you is that this life becomes all that you want it to. Your dreams stay big, your worries stay small, you never need to carry more than you can hold. And while you're out there getting where you're getting to, I hope you know somebody loves you and wants the same things too.

This is my wish.

I love you,

Mom

Maxwell Zajack

Max,

It's so hard to believe how fast the time went by and here we are at High School graduation. We know this is only the very beginning of your bright future!

It seems like yesterday you were running around playing, out on your bike with friends, playing basketball, football, and golf!

Always a sports fanatic! You've ALWAYS had your own sense of style and we loved seeing the many different ones over the years, especially your incredible sneaker collection!

Your sweet, kind, loving heart has always shined bright and let's not forget that hilarious sense of humor! You are the true definition of an entrepreneur, always having the ability to think outside of the box, create new opportunities and continuously grow. You've worked so hard to come this far and we truly admire your motivation and tenacity. Your stubborn character has suited you very well over the years and will continue to in the future as you always accomplish everything you set out to in your own way.

Your resiliency to overcome challenges is remarkable and we applaud your keen sense of self. We know you will not only succeed in your next chapter, but you will also excel in life. The best has yet to come! You've made us so proud, and we wish you the best of luck on your new adventure, with much health, happiness, and love.

Love, Mummy, Dad, Matthew, and Carly

Patrick Yesinko

Patrick

Words do little to express how proud we are of you.

Your commitments to the classroom, the field and your community have shaped your success.

We can't wait to see what the future holds for you.

Congratulations on a job well done.

We love you so much!

Dad, Mom and Maeve

Ross Olinger

Ross,

I can't begin to tell you how incredibly proud I am of you. You are hard working, driven and I know you will have amazing success in all you do.

Cameron Igo

Cameron, you've made us so proud with all your accomplishments. But more importantly, we are proud of the kind and talented young man that you are. You can achieve anything!! Happy Graduation!
We love you, Mom & Dad.

Brianna Casey

Brianna, you've enjoyed learning from the moment you could hold a book and went on to excel in the classrooms at MHS. You've also excelled on its stage, whether acting or singing, and have earned many accomplishments related to both, as well as your artistic talents. We couldn't be prouder of all you've accomplished in four years.

All our love, Mom & Dad

We closed our eyes for but a moment and suddenly a young man stood where a boy used to be.
We may not carry you in our arms, but we will always carry you in our hearts.

You have given us so many reasons to be proud of the young man you have become, but the proudest moments for us, is telling others that you are our son, brother, grandson.

Congratulations Nolan!

YEAR IN review

RECORD BREAKING 24-YEAR-OLD SIMONE BILES, who now has four skills named after her, removed herself from four Olympic finals, citing the "twisties," commonly known amongst gymnasts as a mental block causing disorientation mid-air, which can result in unsafe landings. Her participation still secured a team silver medal and an individual bronze medal for her balance beam routine. Biles has since become an advocate for mental health, receiving the 2021 BBC Sports Personality of the Year Lifetime Achievement Award, and was named TIME's 2021 Athlete of the Year as well as one of People Magazine's 2021 People of the Year.

GET ON BOARD

SKATEBOARDING MADE ITS Olympic debut in Tokyo and was dominated by young Japanese athletes. Japan's 22-year-old Yuto Horigome earned gold for the men's street competition, 19-year-old Sakura Yosozumi took gold for women's park, followed by 12-year-old Kokona Hiraki with silver, and the gold medal in women's street went home to 13-year-old Momiji Nishiya of Japan as well.

MONEY spoke VOLUMES

cut funding for female BMX riders, so Bethany Shriever improvised. Two years prior to the Tokyo Olympics, the 22-year-old athlete launched a crowd-funding page to raise money to train and go to the Tokyo Olympics, where she took home a gold medal.

a secret IN CYCLING

OLYMPIC STEVE MURRAY: on Britain's track cycling team, Elinor Barker, revealed on social media on Oct. 4, 2021, she was pregnant while competing in the Tokyo Olympics. The 27-year-old British cycling star told The Cycling Podcast she learned she was pregnant just days before her race.

U.S. MEN'S BASKETBALL won gold Aug. 7, defeating France 87-82 and securing the team's fourth consecutive gold medal and 16th gold overall. Kevin Durant has served as the team's all-time leading scorer for the past three Olympics, finishing with 29 points and six rebounds, taking home his third gold medal.

RAISING RECORDS

THREE TIMES THE CHARM

U.S. OLYMPIC MARATHONER

Molly Seidel shocked the running world on Aug. 6, winning a bronze medal in only her third attempt at the marathon. She is the first American female marathoner to medal since Deena Kastor won bronze at the 2004 Olympics in Athens, Greece.

TWO-TIME OLYMPIAN and now seven-time Olympic gold-medal winner Caeleb Dressel made history in the Tokyo games, becoming only the third U.S. male to win three individual golds in a single Olympics, joining the ranks of Michael Phelps and Mark Spitz. Dressel dominated the 100-meter freestyle and the 400-freestyle relay, earning gold for both. On the final day of competition, Dressel won the men's 50-meter freestyle in a record-setting 21.07 seconds. He followed up in the same session with the butterfly leg of the 400-medley relay, securing the gold in another record-setting competition.

landing history

VENEZUELAN JUANITA ROJAS

landed herself in a record-setting first place, earning her gold medal with a 15.67-meter triple jump at the Tokyo Olympics. This smashed the 26-year-old record of 15.50 meters, leading her to become the first female gold medalist in Venezuelan history and Venezuela's only gold medal of the Tokyo Olympics.

OUR SHOT

FATAL COLLAPSE

NINETY-EIGHT PEOPLE DIED when a portion of the Champlain Towers South condo building in South Florida collapsed in the middle of the night on June 24. Victims ranged from one to 92 years old. The building was undergoing a 40-year structural review when it collapsed. The tragedy prompted federal and state investigations and changes to building codes.

DRIVE SPIKE

THE WASHINGTON POST REPORTED the economy grew 5.7% in 2021, the fastest full-year clip since 1984. Growing economies result in inflation, and prices averaged 7% higher than 2020. Economists suggested worker shortages and supply and demand issues across major sectors — including car, housing and food production — contributed to the inflation curve.

NEW COVID VARIANTS

THE WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION announced a new Covid-19 variant detected by scientists in Africa on Nov. 24, 2021. The Omicron variant curbed holiday plans as positive cases and quarantines skyrocketed to their highest of the pandemic. By Jan. 19, 2022, the Biden Administration had begun shipping 500 million free, on-request, at-home tests through the U.S. Postal Service.

Trains, Planes and Automobiles

CONGRESS PASSED the bipartisan Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act and President Joe Biden signed it into law on Nov. 15, 2021. The historic $1.2 trillion investment included $550 billion for upgrades to bridges, roads, transit systems and the electric grid. Passing this legislation was a key component of the president's first-year agenda.

THANK YOU FOR BEING OUR FRIEND

JUNETEENTH BECOMES HOLIDAY

COMMEMORATING THE END TO SLAVERY in the United States, President Biden added "Juneteenth" or June 19 to the list of federal holidays, marking the first time the federal government officially recognized the date. It was the 12th federal holiday.

EMERGENCY EVACUATION

THE PRESIDENT CONTINUED the withdrawal of troops from Afghanistan, and completed the evacuation on Aug. 30. It marked the end of a 20-year war, the country's longest. The decision was in response to increased offensive efforts by the Taliban, and intelligence reports predicting the capitol city, Kabul, would fall within weeks. The withdrawal was the largest evacuation of American citizens, military aides and other personnel in history.

lift off

TWO BILLIONAIRES launched commercial aircrafts into space. Virgin Galactic's Sir Richard Branson moved up his lift-off to July 11, 2021, to beat fellow billionaire, Amazon founder Jeff Bezos, into orbit by nine days. Branson's SpaceShipTwo carried two pilots and three employees. Bezos' New Shepard carried his brother, an 18-year-old physics student, and 82-year-old aviation pioneer Wally Funk. Funk was one of 13 women to go through the same NASA tests as men in the 1960s to become astronauts, but were never chosen to go to space. Elon Musk's SpaceX also launched a commercial flight in 2021, carrying among its passengers 90-year-old Star Trek icon William Shatner.

flying SOLO

ZARA Rutherford set a world record on Jan. 20, 2022, for being the youngest woman to fly solo around the globe. During her 155-day voyage, she stopped in five continents and visited 41 nations.

The 19-year-old said she hoped to inspire other young women to explore the field of aviation.

The film, a star-making vehicle for leading actor and Hamilton original Broadway cast member Anthony Ramos, earned almost $44 million. Original 'Heights cast members appeared in cameos throughout the film.

RAISING the STANDARD

ALABAMA QUARTERBACK Bryce Young won the Heisman Trophy on Dec. 11, 2021. Only the fifth sophomore to ever win the award, Young was the face of college football, and the new "NIL" or name, image and likeness policy enacted in July. NIL gave college athletes the right to monetize and profit from their personal brands. Before the Pasadena, CA native had taken his first snap as a college starter, Young, had amassed more than $1 million from sponsors such as Cash App, iHeartRadio and Netflix. USA Today called NIL a "seismic shift for college sports." Young, a CAA Sports client, also won the Manning Award as the top quarterback in the nation (following 2020 winner and Alabama alum Mac Jones), as well as being named Player of the Year by the Associated Press and The Sporting News. The sophomore also collected the Maxwell Award as college football's top player. Young became the first Alabama quarterback and fourth Crimson Tide player to win the Heisman, following the previous year's winner, his freshman roommate, DeVonta Smith.
